

Michael Barker and the Performance Development Group

Performance Development Group is a team of Senior Business Coaches with an unrivalled depth of expertise and hands on Business Development Experience. Headed up by Michael Barker who has a 16 year career as a senior business coach with one of the worlds leading training companies his team have been at the sharp end of proven business and personal improvement coaching for many years with leading edge training and development businesses.

Our programmes are designed to assist companies and individuals to develop the techniques, skills and attitudes that will help them realise their potential in a new and more powerful way. In essence we offer a range of development solutions that will help your business in the following areas:

- Leadership and Management Development
- Sales Development
- Customer Care and Team Development
- First line manager and Personal Skills Development
- Communication and Presentation skills
- Process Improvement Programmes
- Specialist HR Consultancy

For further details e-mail Michael on: Michael@performanceedg.com

Performance Development Group
Proven strategies for business and personal success